Beyond the Broughtons: A User’s Guide To Southeast Alaska

Boaters considering a cruise to Southeast Alaska will get valuable information at a one-day workshop cosponsored by Washington Sea Grant and the Seattle Yacht Club. “Beyond the Broughtons” will focus on boating beyond British Columbia’s Broughton Archipelago, with special emphasis on Southeast Alaska’s cruising highlights.

The workshop is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 27, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., in the Heritage Room of the Seattle Yacht Club, 1807 E. Hamlin St., Seattle. The cost is $20.

Topics will include strategizing routes, open-water crossings, working the weather, co-existing with commercial vessels, Ketchikan customs, chart inaccuracies and more. The instructor, Capt. Linda Lewis, holds a U.S. Coast Guard Master 100-ton License and is an Associate Professor Emerita at the University of Washington.

For more information or to preregister, call Washington Sea Grant Marine Education Coordinator Sarah Fisken at 206-543-1225 or the Seattle Yacht Club at 206-325-1000.
