

Shoreline and Coastal Planners Group

Shoreline Construction and Restoration: Case Studies on Lake Washington

Thursday, August 25, 2011

Seward Park Environmental & Audubon Center
5902 Lake Washington Blvd S., Seattle WA 98118

Field trip: Site tours of shoreline restoration treatments on Lake Washington
(Seward and Martha Washington parks)

Agenda

- 9:15 a.m. Sign-in/coffee/chat
- 9:30 a.m. Introductions
- 9:40 – 10:00 a.m. Shoreline Management Policy: Overcoming Barriers and Creating Opportunities to Enhance Shoreline Function. Joe Burcar, Shoreline Planner, WA Dept. of Ecology
- 10:00 – 10:30 a.m. Shoreline Development at Single Family Homes: Options and Issues. Dan Nickel, Principal and Environmental Engineer, The Watershed Company
- 10:30 – 11:00 a.m. The Role of Parks Departments in Shoreline Restoration. David Graves, Senior Planner, Seattle Parks and Recreation
- 11:00 – 11:15 a.m. Morning break
- 11:15 – 11:30 a.m. WRIA 8 Actions to Improve Shoreline Function. Annette Frahm, Green Shorelines Outreach Coordinator, Lake Washington/Cedar/Sammamish Watershed (WRIA 8)
- 11:30 – 11:55 a.m. Green Shores for Homes: A Pilot Project to Improve Shoreline Sustainability on Lake Washington and Beyond. Katrina Hoffman, Coastal Resources Specialist, Washington Sea Grant
- Noon – 12:15 p.m. Group discussion
- 12:15 – 12:45 p.m. Brown-bag networking lunch
- 12:45 – 1:15 p.m. Monitoring the Impacts of Restoration on Lake Washington Shorelines. Jeff Cordell, Principal Research Biologist, University of Washington School of Aquatic and Fishery Sciences
- 1:15 – 2:00 p.m. Seward Park tour, transit time to Martha Washington Park (0.6 miles south)
- 2:30 – 3:00 p.m. Martha Washington Park tour
- 3:00 – 3:15 p.m. Final thoughts/discussion/adjourn