An Historic Harbor Continues to Look to the Future

Joey Donnelly
March 26, 2013
HANCOCK WHARF IMPROVEMENTS

THIS PROJECT IS FUNDED IN PART THROUGH THE MAINE DEPARTMENT OF MARINE RESOURCES WORKING WATERFRONT ACCESS PILOT PROGRAM.

ENGINEER: ATTAR ENGINEERING, INC

CONTRACTOR: Maritime Construction and Engineering, LLC
York River

Schooners tied up at Marshall's Wharf majority of ocean-going ships arriving in the river. The last of these ships, the coal schooner St. Croix sailed back of the wharves. Leavitt later sold out to his partner, Jotham P. Norton. Norton was born in York Village in 1815 and died in 1902 at the age of...