

Calendar Alert

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 31, 2014

MEDIA CONTACT:

Meg Matthews
Washington Sea Grant
206-291-5942
megmm@uw.edu

Stay Safe on the Water with Washington Sea Grant

First Aid at Sea session to be held in Seattle, Tacoma

Brush up on your safety skills just in time for Opening Day with Washington Sea Grant, Port of Seattle Fishermen's Terminal and Flagship Maritime Training.

WHAT:

First Aid at Sea: When crisis strikes, don't be left adrift: learn skills that help you respond quickly to emergencies. This Coast Guard-approved course covers critical life-saving measures including first aid kit prep, CPR, patient assessment, hypothermia, near drowning, shock, trauma, burns, fractures, choking and more.

WHO:

Recreational boaters and commercial fishermen will benefit from this class

WHEN:

Seattle session: Wednesday, May 21, 8 a.m.–5p.m.
Nordby Conference Room, Nordby Building
Fishermen's Terminal
3919 18th Ave. West
Seattle, Wash., 98119

Tacoma session: Thursday, May 29, 8 a.m.–5p.m.
Flagship Maritime Training
821 Dock Street
Tacoma, Wash., 98402

PRICE:

$80 ($40 for commercial fishermen); pre-registration required. Only 15 spots available per course.

SIGN UP:

For information and registration, contact Sarah Fisker: sfisker@uw.edu or 206-543-1225.

###

Housed in the College of the Environment at the University of Washington, Washington Sea Grant leads research, outreach and education for people to understand and address challenges facing our oceans and coasts. Join the conversation with @WASeaGrant and facebook.com/WaSeaGrant. Visit us online at wsg.washington.edu.