

Financial Planning for Fishermen and Farmers

How to get the most out of your fishing and farming operations

Washington State University Jefferson and Clallam County Extension, and Washington Sea Grant are cosponsoring a Financial Planning Workshop for commercial fishermen and farmers on Saturday, November 7, 2015 in Chimacum. This workshop is in conjunction with WSU's Cultivating Success Entrepreneurial Class.

Topics include the 5 C's of Credit, lending programs targeting fishermen and farmers, accounting geared toward fishermen and farmers, create financial projections with different scenarios, financial statements and ratios that matter and enterprise budgeting.

If you are looking at some new financing for your operation; buying new gear, buying a new boat, expanding into a different fishery, retirement or something else this workshop is for you.

Speakers include Ricky Adams, NW Farm Credit Services, Brian Kuh, Craft 3, and Kevin Hoult, WSU Small Business Advisor. Please bring your laptop (if you have one).

When: November 7, 2015

Time: 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Where: Chimacum Grange,
9572 Rhody Dr., Chimacum

Fee: $50

Pre-registraion is required. Please contact Sarah Fisken, 206.543.1225 or 360.379.5610 ext 204 or sfisken@uw.edu; or Kellie Henwood, kellie.henwood@wsu.edu to register or for more information.

Financial Planning for Fishermen and Farmers

To register

Are you a fisherman or a farmer ?

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

TELEPHONE _____ EMAIL _____

Please return this form with with a check for $50 payable to University of Washington to:

Sarah Fisken
Washington Sea Grant
West Wall Building
Rm. 124
Fishermen's Terminal
Seattle, WA 98199